

Highlight evidence that helps answer the question, How does Phillip's dad feel about them leaving?

Evidence

"I'll never forget the tall lonely figure standing on the sea wall."
(Paragraph 8)

"He said good-by tous between clenched teeth."
(Paragraph 5)

"Then he inspected the fire hoses on the boat deck. I knew he was worried."
(Paragraph 3)

"Well, you can rest easy Phillip the Germans wouldn't waste a torpedo on this old tub."
(Paragraph 3)

"Take good care of your mother."
(Paragraph 5)

"Father was smiling."
(Paragraph 5)

Reasoning

When people say goodbye, they wave and watch until they can't see each other any more.

Usually when people clench their teeth it means that they're not happy or they're worried.

Usually when a person is inspecting something, he or she is judging if safe or not.

As a rule, when people are uncomfortable they try to reassure themselves.

Generally speaking, when dads have to be apart from their families they tell the oldest child to care for the rest of the family.

Usually people make light of difficult situations, so it is easier for those involved.

Evidence

"I knew he was worried." (Paragraph 3)

"He said good-bye between clenched teeth." (Paragraph 5)

"I'll never forget that tall lonely figure standing on the sea wall." (Paragraph 7)

"Take good care of your mother." (Paragraph 5)

"Father was smiling..." (Paragraph 5)

Reasons

As a general rule, people who are worried often show it in their facial expressions.

When people clench their teeth, it shows that they are mad, sad, or worried.

Generally speaking, when people watch loved one leave, they watch as long as possible until they can't see them any more.

Usually this happens when people won't see each other for a long time.

When dads have to be apart from their families, they pass on their responsibility to the oldest child.

If someone is smiling in sad situation, it usually means that they are trying to make the best of it.

NAME! HOUR!

WHAT DID I LEARN?

— BACK —

What do you need more Clarification on?
more teaching

Ways to start off REASONING.

When creating reasoning, you want to make general Rules or Common Knowledge that everyone can understand or experience. * USE NOTHING FROM THE READING!!!

Use :

- * As a general rule... Friends...
 - * When a person... Usually...
 - * Someone...
 - * If someone...
 - * Generally...
 - * When people...
- * Your reason can easily be put in another situation and still make sense.

FINISH PINK EGYPT ASSIGNMENT - WORK WITH YOUR PARTNER

Scan
this with
QR →
APP

